Dear Charlie:

As you know, we have filed the patent application at the instruction of the company. We are enclosing the following documents for your execution concerning the above-identified application:

1. A copy of the patent application as filed and accompanying papers;
2. Declaration; and
3. Recordable Assignment form.

Please review the application in light of the averments contained in the Declaration. Please then review and sign the Declaration and Assignment documents. Note that the Assignment should be executed before two witnesses who should also sign where indicated. Please then forward the executed documents to us as soon as possible for filing in the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. If you are refusing to sign the Declaration and/or Assignment, please advise us of your refusal in writing.

We ask that you respond by September 15, 2001.

We take this opportunity to remind you of Applicant's continuing duty of candor as imposed by Rule 56. Please be sure to keep us advised of any information that becomes known to you that may be considered material to the examination of the present application. We, in turn, will promptly inform the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. For your convenience, we enclose a copy of our Duty of Disclosure Memorandum

If you have any questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Very truly yours,

Mark Ungerman
